observations: unhealthily
borderline ~~dangerously~~ obsessed with word choice

history of offering to edit, test work for others (unsolicited)

story and user design much stronger than visual design thinks metafiction is

"never out of style" (arguable)

ref "Alex's Jason & Deb's IMDb Game" (it's just a movie trivia game;
does it need such an unwieldy name?)

and no one's making him
do this??

right, but what is this?
like, as a conceit, are these notes
from a recruiter? a private investigator?
need to ask in person...
